

2014 Malbec

$29.00

Tasting Notes:

South facing slopes along the Snake River atop rich red volcanic soil provide excellent conditions for growing Malbec in Idaho. Huston Vineyards Malbec presents deep garnet colors and aromas of dried blueberries and allspice. This medium bodied wine displays supple tannins and flavors of plum and black raspberry with a finish that is spicy and lingering.

Pair with: Cherry-wood smoked brisket with a spicy rub and splashed with a little chimichurri sauce.

Awards:

GOLD | 2016 Great Northwest Wine Invitational

SILVER | 2016 Idaho Wine Competition

Growing Notes:

2014 growing season was warmer than average for Idaho. The long, warm growing season ensured the ripeness of all varietals and the overall yields were elevated over previous seasons. A strong year for growing reds, particularly Bordeaux varietals.
