Tasting Notes:

Blackberry, raspberry and black cherry aromas waft out of the glass, with hints of mint and oak spice. Dark fruit flavors, opulent mouthfeel, rich and loaded with fine-grained tannin. Long fruit, cedar finish.

Pair with: Cherry-wood smoked brisket with a spicy rub and splashed with a little chimichurri sauce.

Growing Notes:

A cool, wet spring delayed bud break and slowed the start of the growing season. Summer brought warm and dry conditions mixed with well-timed rains, allowing for ideal ripening. Cool fall nights helped the grapes retain natural acidity and ensured an excellent harvest, with concentrated flavors and well-balanced wines.
